The Grand Rally and Barbecue Tomorrow—Are You Going?

The special train leaves for Goldston tomorrow morning at 8:50 o'clock. Fare for round trip $1.25. Returning the train will reach Greensboro in ample time for supper. Thus, it will be seen our citizens will have an excellent opportunity of spending a delightful day with the good people of Chatham and Moore counties at a very small cost.

There will be an abundance of good things to eat, and good speeches by some of the best speakers in the state. Our candidate for solicitor will be there and those who have not heard him should not fail to hear him tomorrow. Besides Mr. Brooks, Hon. Lee S. Overman, Hon. Cyrus B. Watson and Major Henry A. London are billed to speak, and the names of these gentlemen is sufficient guarantee that the speaking will be on a high and eloquent plane. We hope Greensboro will send a large delegation.

THIRD REGIMENT PASSES.

Met and Cherished by a Large Body of Colored Citizens.

The Third N. C. Volunteers, the heroes of Fort Macon, passed through Greensboro last night en route to Knoxville, Tenn. Long before sunset the colored people began gathering around the depot to see the boys and wish them continued success. By 7:30 when the first section came in, the platform and reception rooms at the depot were packed. Each section stopped here nearly an hour, getting water and supper. The men behaved admirably while here. The privates remained in the cars and few, outside of the Greensboro company, who, of course, wanted to talk to their relatives and friends, were heard or seen on the platform.

Wesley Smith was conspicuous for his absence at first, but was finally found with his head sticking out of a window, talking to some friends.

A sleeping car was attached to every train for the officers, Col. James Young and staff coming on a private Pullman on the last section.

The regiment will go into camp at Knoxville and it is thought will be sent to Cuba with the army of occupation.

AT THE BANNER TONIGHT.

The National Fete by the Ladies Aid Society W. Market Street Church

The National Fete at the Banner warehouse tonight bids fair to be the biggest and most successful thing of its kind ever given in Greensboro. The Ladies Aid Society, together with other members of West Market street church, have spared no time and labor to make it a success, and now that is assured.

The music will be simply grand. All the patriotic songs will be sung by a well selected and practiced choir, in which many of the best voices in the city have been gathered.

The inside of the Banner warehouse is literally covered with flags and bunting and presents a patriotic appearance.

An excellent bill of fare has been prepared and will be served after the program is completed, or rather will complete the program.

SWEPT BY A TERRIFIC WIND.

The Capital of St. Vincent Totally Destroyed.

HUNDREDS OF PEOPLE KILLED.

Thousands Rendered Homeless By a Hurricane Which Visited the Windward Islands.

From the Morning Dispatches.

London, Sept. 14—Advices were received here late tonight saying that a terrible hurricane has swept over Barbadoes, in the Windward group of the Lesser Antilles. Two hundred persons have been killed and 40,000 rendered homeless.

St. Thomas, D. W. I., Sept. 14—According to the latest reports from St. Lucia, the storm which broke upon the island Sunday night developed almost unprecedented violence, being accompanied by a tidal wave and tremendous rains. Numerous landslides were caused and many houses, bridges and cocoa estates have been destroyed. At least twelve lives have been lost. Guadeloupe, the French island in the Leeward group, has experienced very heavy weather. Nineteen deaths are reported and there have been destructive landslides.

A boat from the island of St. Vincent, a hundred miles west of Barbadoes, arrived today at the island of Grenada, and reports that St. Vincent has experienced the most violent and destructive cyclone ever known there. Kingston, the capital of St. Vincent, is totally destroyed. It is estimated that 300 lives have been lost in that island and that 20,000 people are homeless. The bodies of the dead are being buried in trenches. Thousands are starving, or being fed at the public expense.

The amount of property destroyed in St. Vincent cannot be estimated. Every small house is down and many large ones have been destroyed. The demolished buildings include churches, stores and almost all the state buildings. Three large ships are ashore on the Windward coast and many smaller vessels are stranded. No information is obtainable here from Barbadoes as to the results of the threatened hurricane of Saturday night last. Communication is cut off and the worst is feared.

REPORTS NOT EXAGGERATED.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

London, Sept. 15—Advices received this morning show that the first reports regarding the destruction of life and property by the hurricane which swept Barbadoes, St. Vincent, St. Lucia and other islands of the Windward group were not exaggerated.

Indeed, appalling as the details are, they fail to present an adequate idea of the terrible havoc wrought by the storm. Estimates of the loss of life are believed to be far short of the actual number killed, while the number rendered homeless is much greater than was at first stated.

The aggregate damage to property cannot be estimated, or even approximated, as the wind, rainfall, tidal waves and landslides have completely devastated the country. It is believed the dead in Kingston, the capital of the island of St. Vincent, which was totally destroyed, will reach three hundred, while twenty thousand were rendered homeless.

A British man-of-war, on the alert, went to sea to escape the storm. There is heavy loss to shipping.

NOTES FROM HIGH POINT.

The Local News From Our Neighbor Briefly Told.

TELEGRAM BUREAU.
HIGH POINT, N. C., Sept. 15, '98.

Clarke Cox, of Blisco, passed through this morning enroute to Burlington.

The police court is doing a good business this week. Last night two negroes were tried before the court for disorderly conduct and one of them fined, also three negroes were tried for rocking each other. One of them was acquitted and one fined for throwing rocks and the other fined for dodging them. That was rather hard on the latter.

E. D. Steel bought out the Guilford Foundry and Machine works last night. He is now sole owner and proprietor of the plant.

Being asked so many times when our boys in the Second regiment were coming home we clip from the News and Observer of today the following:

On Saturday, those who have the money to go home will be allowed to go and remain thirty days. Those who have not the funds or do not desire to go will be allowed to spend the thirty days here in camp and will be provided for."

They will doubtless be mustered out soon, but it is not advisable to do so at present.

J. H. West, of Greensboro, the popular excursion manager, passed through this morning, advertising his annual excursion to Asheville which will pass here next Wednesday. Fare for round trip $3.00. The train will go and come in the day time. Many people from here are going.

We of course are hearing much complaint about the hitching posts being taken up, but we trust our friends will soon get used to this. There are plenty of hitching places in the back lots that they hitch to but none strong enough to hold up some of the "plugs" we see in town sometimes.

W. A. Wingate, of Greensboro, has rented the store room in the Sechrest building recently occupied by W. E. Johns & Son and will soon open a bicycle repair shop therein.

The Eagle Furniture Company have shut down for the day on account of the main driving bell being slack.

Ellerbe's Friends Confident.

Columbia, S. C., Sept. 15—Out of a total vote of 60,870, reported at one o'clock, Governor Ellerbe has a majority of 1,988. The missing votes will hardly reduce this majority, and the governor's friends are now perfectly confident. The other races have not been changed by belated returns.

A WHITED SEPULCHRE.

Dr. Thompson made an unlucky break when he boasted of the sobriety of the present administration. Many people had supposed the whole lay-out were addicted to the rum habit and were drunk all the time, judging from the character of the administration they have given the state, and were therefore inclined to "forgive and forget." Many a man who is otherwise a "good enough fellow" but who is an unhappy victim of drink, does and performs many acts which bring sorrow and shame to his family and friends, but all is overlooked and attributed to his insatiable and uncontrollable desire for rum.

But now the astounding revelation is made that that the administration is sober! What might we expect if they were really drunk all the time? In the language of Mr. Aycock: For God's sake keep sober! Along this line the following from the Charlotte Observer, is entitled to double-leaded space:

"Populist State Chairman Thompson, in his speeches, thunders out with infinite self-satisfaction that the present fusion administration is 'the only officially sober administration the State has ever had. Russell don't drink,' he goes to enumerate: 'Walser don't drink, I don't drink. Hal Ayer is the only member of it that drinks, and he is a sober man.' Then of course, everybody knows that good Father Worth doesn't drink. Thus does this good man, keeping the law in all points, throw bouquets at himself and his company—the 'Sanctified Band' of North Carolina politicians.

"The very fact of this superb sobriety on the part of Dr. Thompson and his confederates is reason for their greater damnation by the outraged public they govern. Is it possible that such sober men as these have won the reputation of giving North Carolina an administration viler and more contemptible than the carpet-bag administration of reconstruction.

"The criminally insane violated by an attendant physician; female convicts dragged down by 'the old doctor' on one of the penitentiary farms; convicts allowed to escape by conniving guards or, going to the other extreme, beaten to death by a bloodthirsty guard; expensive and malicious legal proceedings to annul an honestly-made lease to a great railroad; increase of public expenditures $300,000 in the face of a promise to reduce; negroes put in power over the helpless white minorities of the east; the State's largest city at the mercy of robbers and rowdies; another city dominated by negro officials; the 100 white majority of still another city nullified by amending its charter and placing it under black rule; a white lady slapped in the face by a negro as she passed along the street—these are a few of the evils the present sober administration has to answer for.

"With all their alleged drunkenness Democratic administrations have managed, under God, to bless the state with the boon of good government.

"But there is sobriety and sobriety, and there are more kinds of intoxication than one. The fusionist governor of this state is reeling and reeking drunk with blind prejudice and passion and malice.

"The fusionist secretary of state is intoxicated with Phariseism and egotisms to the point of delirium tremens. And the whole bragged-of administration is drunk with greed for 'pie.'

"When there is such a 'putrid pit' within, it hardly becomes the fusionist secretary of state to point with pride to the outside of this 'whited sepulchre.'"

ONE OF THE OLD SCHOOL.

Hon. C. H. Brogden Writes Repudiating Republicans.

We publish below a letter from Hon. C. E. Brogden, a life-long republican who has filled the position of governor of the state and represented his party in congress, but who now sees the all-absorbing question as it is and comes out boldly for white supremacy of which the democratic party alone is the champion:

Goldsboro, N. C., Sept. 12, 1898.
Editor Argus—In reference to the current history of political events in our day, it seems to be true that wonders will never cease. I am reminded of this trite old adage by the non-action of the democratic congressional district convention for the second district that met at Wilson on the 31st of August and failed to nominate a candidate for congress.

"I have understood there are some populists who will not vote for Lloyd, the populist nominee, it is said they will vote for White, the negro. Now, how any respectable white populist or democrat can vote for White, with his well known and abominable black record, passeth all my understanding. I thought that populists as well as democrats were for white supremacy, for white rule and white metal and White is opposed to both. I thought they were opposed to monopolies, trusts and combines, to all unjust and ruinous taxation and to all reckless and profligate appropriations and White is in favor of these. When he is in Congress he votes invariably with Dingley and Grosvenor for everything they are for or against, and he obeys their suggestions as implicitly and promptly as he ever did the orders of his master when he was a slave under him. White is decidedly the most objectionable negro in the state as a politician. Look at his speech in the republican state convention at Raleigh, on the 20th of July last. While denouncing the democratic party he took occasion to announce his opposition to the free coinage of silver, spoke of himself and other negroes holding office and said there are plenty more being made to order to hold offices. He got down to the lowest plane upon which any man, white or black, ever spoke in a State convention.

Such reprehensible rant may do for such occasions as that to please the thoughtless and ignorant, but it imparts no useful knowledge or information to the people. He was so disgusting, according to the report, that one negro said: 'I was ashamed of my race, that when it has a chance to put a man in high position, selects a man who will make so mean a speech.' George H. White is not a suitable man to represent the Second district. He has done nothing but draw his salary, and never will, but vote to create debt and tax the people. And what good can one negro member like White do in a house composed of 355 white members. It is a farce to talk about his doing anything for the taxpayers but vote to increase their taxes, which are already too oppressive. White is in favor of paying all government bonds in gold, although it is declared expressly on the face of each bond that it is payable in coin, which means silver as well as gold. And after the senate had passed the Matthews-Teller resolutions by a large majority, the resolutions went to the house, asserting that fact in plain and unequivocal terms. White would not vote for the resolutions and would not vote to assert that which the law and the bond both declared to be true. He is ever ready to vote to impose taxes on the people, when he knows they have got no gold to pay taxes with. Who wants such a man to represent them in Congress?

"Does any respectable tax-paying white man want to pay the bond-holders in better money than he has to use himself? I think not, and yet White says he must. I thought that the honest and intelligent tax-paying people wanted an honest man to represent their interests in Congress, and not an unprincipled, swaggering demagogue of much vanity and low instincts, who delights in all his political speeches to harp on the negro, negro, negro, while at the same time intending an insidious and invidious disparagement of the white race.

The honest and discreet people do not want a braggart of a bogus statesman to represent them, whose main hobby is to deal in the filth and slime low debauch and disgusting charlatanism.—C. H. Brogden in Goldsboro Argus.

The great bell of Schaffhausen, from which Schiller took the inscription, "Vivos voco; mortuos plango; fulgura frango," as the motto for his celebrated poem, "Die Glocke," has become useless for chiming purposes because of its cracks. The town council has decided not to melt it down, but to preserve it among the curiosities of the village.

France has but a single active volcano—a low, broad hill 400 feet high, near Decazeville, in the department of Aveyron. The crater sends out thick clouds of smoke and burning lava is seen at the bottom of the fissures. If a stick be thrust into the ground it catches fire and sometimes flames proceed from the hole after its withdrawal.

A New England paper prints the story about Colonel Roosevelt's preparations to "roast those who are responsible for the mismanagement of the campaign" under the caption: "Roosevelt Makes Charges." Of course he does. So do all the rough riders. And to the effectiveness of those daring charges was principally due the defeat of the Spaniards at Santiago.

The Delta Light House is wide-awake to all that goes on in Greenville, Miss., and nothing escapes the eye of its observant publisher. Among the personals in a recent issue is the following: "John F. Mosby is the ticket. He broke all records by making a mail delivery on his wheel. But the best of all he seems to mean business with Miss E., just across the railroad. Look out, old fox!"

DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve has the largest sale of any salve in the world. This fact and its merit has led dishonest people to attempt to counterfeit it. Look out for the man who attempts to deceive you when you call for DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, the great pile cure. Howard Gardner.

A beautiful monument of Milford granite, erected by the state of Massachusetts to her sons who fell at Antietam, September 17, 1862, will be dedicated on that battlefield on Saturday next. Governor Wolcott will be the orator of the day.

Remarkable Rescue

Mrs. Michael Curtin, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement that she caught cold which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine would cure her. Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption; she bought a bottle and to her delight found herself benefited from first dose. She continued its use and after taking six bottles, found herself sound and well; now does her own housework, and is as well as ever was. Free trial bottles of this Great Discovery at C. E. Holton's drug store. Large bottles 50 cents and $1.00.

A CRITICAL TIME

During the Battle of Santiago.

SICK OR WELL, A RUSH
NIGHT AND DAY.

The Packers at the Battle of Santiago de Cuba were all Heroes. Their Heroic Efforts in Getting Ammunition and Rations to the Front Saved the Day.

P. E. Butler, of pack-train No. 3, writing from Santiago, De Cuba, on July 23rd, says: "We all had diarrhoea in more or less violent form, and when we landed we had no time to see a doctor, for it was a case of rush and rush night and day to keep the troops supplied with ammunition and rations, but thanks to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, we were able to keep at work and keep our health; in fact, I sincerely believe that at one critical time this medicine was the indirect saviour of our army, for if the packers had been unable to work there would have been no way of getting supplies to the front. There were no roads that a wagon train could use. My comrade and myself had the good fortune to lay in a supply of this medicine for our pack-train before we left Tampa, and I know in four cases it absolutely saved life."

The above letter was written to the manufacturers of this medicine, the Chamberlain Medicine Co., of Des Moines, Iowa. For sale by C. E. Holton.

More than twenty million free samples of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve have been distributed by the manufacturers. What better proof of their confidence in it's merits do you want? It cures piles, burns, scalds, sores, in the shortest space of time. Howard Gardner.

PROF RAPER'S LECTURE

An Account of His Travels in England and Scotland

The first of a series of lectures to be given monthly before the high school department of the Winston graded schools, was delivered last evening in the Y. M. C. A. auditorium by Prof. Charles L. Raper, late professor of history in Greensboro Female College.

Professor Raper is also well known in the state as the author of a book entitled, "The Church and Private Schools in North Carolina."

He is a pleasing and impressive speaker and delivered a most excellent lecture, taking as his theme an account of his travels in England and Scotland.

After narrating the events of the voyage from New York to Liverpool, the speaker geographically described the different English towns and cities he visited, including Liverpool, the present home of the distinguished writer, Tom McClaren, the city of Oxford with its 20 colleges, Windsor, made famous by Elton College and the royal home of the King and Queen of England, and lastly London, the greatest of all cities in the world.

It is interesting to know that the present population of London equals that of North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia combined, and exceeds the combined population of New York and Paris.

Mr. Raper told of his visits to the old homes of Milton, Dryden, Carlyle, Shakespeare and other distinguished literary men, and of the places made famous in the writings of Thackeray and Dickens. He described the old tower built by William the Conqueror, Westminster Abbey, with the tombs and monuments, and the British Museum, containing the second largest library in the world.

One of the most interesting parts of the lecture was an account of the Queen's Jubilee, on the 60th anniversary of her reign. The 22nd of June, 1896, was the great day and Mr. Raper was fortunate enough to be in London at the time. It is estimated that seven and one-half million people were in attendance upon this great event.

Next, a fine account of the speaker's trip to the highlands of Scotland was given, in which were described Abbott's Ford, the home of Walter Scott, the famous lakes, rugged scenery and well known battle fields. Of all the places visited, the speaker remarked that Scotland was the most charming and inspiring.

The lecture was highly appreciated by a large and intelligent audience.

Mr. Raper expects to spend the next two years in Columbia College in New York city, having been awarded a fellowship in that institution—Winston Sentinel.

THE SOUTHERN RAILWAY.

An Ideal Tourist Trip to the North and East, via "Chesapeake Line."

The pleasure-seeking tourist can accomplish no more delightful rail and water journey to the North or East than via the Southern Railway to Norfolk, thence the Chesapeake Line steamers to Baltimore. The Chesapeake Line is the fast mail route. The fleet consists of the most magnificent steamships afloat, The City of Atlanta, Charlotte, Danville and Baltimore, leaving Norfolk every week day at 5:45 for Baltimore, touching at Old Point Comfort. These ships are especially constructed for the Bay service, and their appointments are as perfect as the most fastidious taste can suggest.

The cuisine is unexcelled, and every attention possible is shown to the traveler.

The connection with the Southern Railway, arriving at Norfolk at 7:50 a. m., permits a day's stay over at that point, giving an opportunity to visit Old Point Comfort (Fort Monroe), Virginia Beach and Newport News.

For rates, through tickets, and other information, call on any agent Southern Railway, or write R. L. Vernon, Trav. Pass. Agent, Charlotte, N. C.

You invite disappointment when you experiment. DeWitt's Little Early Risers are pleasant, easy, thorough little pills. They cure constipation and sick headache just as sure as you take them. Howard Gardner.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver, of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides; no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying Electric Bitters; and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents per bottle at C. E. Holton's drug store.

Going to Skyland?

On next Wednesday Mr. West's Asheville excursion goes to the land of the sky. Mr. Vanderbilt's mother travelled all over the known world looking for the prettiest site to build the finest mansion in the world. The western mountains of this state eclipsed the world and the mansion has been built near Asheville. And yet many of our citizens have never seen the prettiest scenery in the world. You have an opportunity to do so next week at a very low price.
